The figure consists of seven panels, each showing a different stage of a handwritten letter 'n' on a set of three horizontal lines (top, middle, and bottom). The panels are arranged horizontally and separated by vertical lines. Each panel shows a different number of strokes used to form the letter, with dots indicating the starting and ending points of each stroke. The first panel shows a single stroke forming the letter. The second panel shows two strokes. The third panel shows three strokes. The fourth panel shows four strokes. The fifth panel shows five strokes. The sixth panel shows six strokes. The seventh panel shows seven strokes. The letter 'n' is formed by a series of connected 'u' shapes, with each 'u' shape formed by a single stroke. The letter is written on a set of three horizontal lines, with the top line being the highest, the middle line being the baseline, and the bottom line being the lowest.
